Beer History, Brews & Brats

With author Michael D. Morgan

Tuesday, April 30, 2019, 6 – 8 p.m.

Join GHP at Meritage, 40 Village Square, on April 30 for stories about local beer lore. The evening will include a tasting of four locally brewed beers and a German-style dinner buffet. Most folks don't know that Glendale was home to two Cincinnati brewers, Albert Lackman, who served on the Village Council, and John Kauffman, Jr., who was almost murdered.

Our speaker, Michael D. Morgan, is author of Cincinnati Beer (to be released April 2019), a history of the region's brewing industry from the 1700s to the current era, and Over-the-Rhine: When Beer Was King. Morgan's love of beer is deep. He founded the Bier Garten at Findlay Market, started the region's first historic brewery tours, and organized and built up the modern iteration of Cincinnati's Bockfest, a celebration of bock beer, which sustained German monks during Lenten fasts. Bockfest now attracts over 30,000 people from around the U.S.

Copies of the book will be available for sale and autographing at the event.

Attendance is $30. Fee includes a tasting of 4 beers, buffet of hearty German fare, and $10 tax-deductible donation to GHP.

Reservations are requested by April 23. Use the reservation form on the back of this newsletter to reserve by mail or drop off at the Depot Museum.

Ohio History Fund

When you file your state tax return, remember to check-off a donation to the Ohio History Connection's History Fund. This fund provides competitive matching grants for historical societies for Bricks & Mortar projects, Organizational Development, and Programs & Collections.

Since 2012, when the History Fund started, it has made a total of $598,000 in grants to 63 organizations in a third of Ohio's 88 counties. The History Fund has received 298 grant applications, totaling just more than $3.6 million in requests. The more donations the Ohio History Fund receives, the more grants it can make for great history projects in our state.

Meet GHP's New Officers

Dr. Jim Brewer, President

Jim Brewer is a Clinical Psychologist, retired after a long career at Cincinnati Children's Hospital. His wife Joanne retired from Ursuline Academy, where she taught Spanish for 20 years. After living in Evendale and Mason, they moved 2 years ago to Carruthers Pond, where Jim enjoys having a garden. Jim says, "We love it here. We have attended every Christmas home tour for many years and always wanted to live in Glendale." Jim volunteered at the Cincinnati Art Museum for 13 years and is now honored to serve as president of GHP, which he considers a wonderful and worthwhile endeavor.

Carolyn Beaugrand, Vice President

Carolyn Beaugrand has lived in Glendale with her husband, Mike, for 30+ years. They raised their two children, Nicole and Patrick, here. Carolyn has always been drawn to the charm of older houses, and lives in one on Sharon built in 1869. She is active on the board of Monday Class, and has served on several others, including Harry Whiting Brown, Glendale Kindervelt, and Glendale PTA. Her MBA and accounting experience are great assets to GHP. She is proud to serve on a board with enthusiastic people who share her love of Glendale.

Susan Swaine, Vice President

The Swaine family moved to Glendale in 1990, partly because its tree-lined streets and stately old homes reminded them of their New England roots. Susan worked for 27 years at Springdale Family Medicine as an RN, and Bobbie, her husband, spent the bulk of his career at P&G as a Research Scientist. Since retirement in 2012, they spend time with their three daughters and their families, which include five, soon to be six, grandchildren. The Swaines are so glad Glendale has been a part of their lives, and they have strived to help preserve the spirit that is Glendale by working with GHP.

Ralph Hoop, Treasurer

Ralph spent 37 years with P&G as an engineering manager, and he and Barbara moved 8 times during the first 15 years of his career, including overseas. When they returned to Cincinnati in the early 1980s, both were attracted to Glendale's park-like appearance and historic homes. Barbara operated a fiber craft shop and later an antique glass and porcelain shop in locations on and near the Square. The Hoops have lived on Ivy Avenue since 1984. After retiring in 2002, Ralph became active with GHP and later served both on Council and as Mayor.

Jim Wesselman, Secretary

Elected to the board in 2018, Jim is already serving as Secretary. After graduating from Thomas More University, he started a company that provided investigative and administrative services for insurance companies. He retired in 2016. He and his wife Donna have been Glendale residents for 30 years. When first visiting Glendale they were struck by its natural beauty, its place in history and the friendliness of its residents. They were impressed by the sense of stewardship that the people of Glendale exhibit in the ownership of their properties.
