DEDICATION OF THE DEPOT

The former CH&D Depot was dedicated to Glendale's late mayor, Harry Matthews, during the Glendale Preservation Day festivities on May 3, 1997. Dr. Frederick Brockmeier, a lifelong friend of Mr. Matthews, presented a moving memorial to his late friend, and Mayor Alec Brockmeier unveiled the commemorative plaque following a tribute of his own.

The depot exterior renovation was undertaken by the Village Administration and included a new roof, brick repair, a new wall and fence, and painting. An excellent job!

OPENING OF THE GHP MUSEUM

Peggy Shardelow, former GHP President, and Jack Bauer, Manager of the Depot Volunteer Workforce, shared the honors as they jointly cut the ribbon opening the new GHP Museum following the Depot dedication. Mrs. Shardelow and Mr. Bauer were the driving elements behind the fourteen month effort to completely renovate the depot interior.

GHP HAS MOVED

Our new address is at the museum:

Glendale Heritage Preservation
44 Village Square
Glendale, Ohio 45246

Additionally, we now have a phone and answering machine, too. Call us at 771-TRAC(8722).

BLACK SQUIRREL GIFT SHOP

The new GHP museum has its own gift shop: The Black Squirrel Gift Shop. The gift shop is open during museum hours: Thursdays and Saturdays, 11:00 AM - 3:00 PM. In addition to the GHP Black Squirrel Miniatures, the shop features a variety of Glendale oriented materials and railroad related items. Come in and take a look!

MUSEUM DISPLAY

Glendale Heritage Preservation has completed its first display for the new museum which opened in the old railroad depot in May. The display "An Evening with Glendale Notables" features six residents of Glendale in a dinner setting. These six "Notables" are Miss Mary Johnston, William Cooper Procter, Fannie Cooper Hibbett, Michael Dooley, Dr. Doris Twitchel and Charles Sawyer.

Display Committee members, Virginia Galbraith, Carol Muntz, Jackie Marconet Valerie Stolt, Nancy Parks and Fifi Surface, contributed to the idea and actualization. Each picked a notable figure, researched data and selected a picture from the museum archives. Each notable contributed to the village and made it a better place to live. More notables will be displayed in the future. As Mrs. Galbraith said recently, "We've done so much on our buildings, let's do something on the people who lived in them."

This is the first display of what GHP hopes will be many and should be up until mid November. Stop in and view it when you come to the Glendale Street Fair/Taste of Glendale on Saturday, October 4.

Another display that GHP would like to do is a model of Historic Glendale as it looked at the turn of the century. Jack Buescher, GHP President, is looking for a few good folks to build it. As Jack said, "Glendale is not a 'tic-tac-toe town' designed around a grid. The town map looks more like a flower and it's no wonder that people driving up Fountain Avenue get lost. If they could see the village in miniature, displayed in our museum they would understand." Anyone interested should call Jack at 771-4908.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

Mike Beaugrand headed the 6th Annual Preservation Pancake Breakfast on March 15, 1997. It was a stunning success with over 1100 people served and receipts of over $6000. The 60 plus volunteers had a great time flipping and serving cakes, running the raffle and silent auction, and even cleaning up. A BIG THANK YOU to all of our contributors and volunteers!
